

Are you struggling with your mental health?

Do you need some advice and guidance?

Mental Health Practitioner Service

Providing mental health support to patients at GP Practices.

We work with you to help improve your mental health and wellbeing through early intervention, relapse prevention and management of mental health, using a range of approaches to achieve this.

Speak to your GP today to see whether a referral would be suitable.